

Tap Happy Coronavirus Policy Update
March 16, 2020

This is the second of the weekly Tap Happy Coronavirus Policy statements. So much has changed in a week!

In light of the increasing numbers of COVID-19 cases in the Houston area, and with an abundance of caution after much research, thought, and soul-searching, we have decided that Tap Happy is suspending classes for this week of March 17 – 19, 2020.

Tap Happy will extend/expand options for making up the cancelled lessons to ensure all our clients have plenty of opportunities to use their class cards.

Our highest priority is the health and safety of our wonderful tap dance community members. We will continue to monitor the situation closely, and will make decisions on a week-by-week basis, in response to the rapid changes. So please watch for the next email announcement and posts on Facebook and the website by Monday, March 23rd at the latest.

We want to thank all Tap Happy students who took class last week for helping us to change our habits and create a cleaner, more conscious environment. When we are able to reconvene, we will have those new habits to help us stay healthy and keep one another healthy going into the future.

Liz and I will miss seeing and dancing with you this week. Meanwhile, as a reminder, let's all practice recommended preventive habits found at the CDC website here: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prepare/prevention.html>.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me at TapHappy@dancepath.com or 832-995-9004.

With warmest regards,
Sara
